| Social Studies Watch How to Change the World (A Work in Progress) (© Soul Pancake Creative) and brainstorm things you might do to change the world. Pick one and write about how you would go about doing it. | Social Studies Take a virtual tour at a museum of your choice, listed here http://bit.ly/virtualmuseums Write about a favorite thing you saw there. | Social Studies Create a map of one room in your house. Identify which way is north, south, west, and east. Have the furniture in the room represent different countries. Have fun naming each of your countries. | Social Studies Make a “Today Is” poster that includes the Month, Date, Year and Weather. If possible, use materials that would allow you to change the information each day. Or you can identify these things each day with your parent or guardian. |
| Physical Education It is important that children are safe and free from injury while they are home. This CHOP resource will help. https://media.chop.edu/data/files/pdfs/injury-prevention-kohls-injury-prevention-book.pdf Make time for some type of physical activity each day. | Music Create your own instruments Example; Homemade Drums What you need: Different empty containers, construction paper, tape, pencils - Cut pieces of construction paper that match the size of the openings on the containers - Use tape to seal of the containers - Crumple a piece of construction paper and use tape to create a ball on the tip of the pencils to create drumsticks - Decorate the drum | Art Rock And Pebble Sculptures Materials Needed: Rocks and pebbles of various sizes Directions: Have the child select a large stone for use as the base and glue smaller stones on top of it or alongside of its sides to make free- form designs or to create animals or faces. Before they assemble their sculptures, allow the children to use their hands and eyes to explore the shapes, sizes, and textures of the stones.
